

Position: Preventive Maintenance Inspector

Reporting to: Head of Inspection

Location: Tanga

Key responsibility

- The role focuses at managing operational risk, by means of eliminating or mitigating failures and conditions initiating and driving failure on all business-critical equipment, thus increasing operational efficiency, and mitigating negative impact on the business.

Principal Accountabilities

- Carries out all routine and ad hoc CBM-Condition Based Maintenance, PdM-Predictive Maintenance and Precision Maintenance measurements on all business-critical equipment, by performing precision data collection, using advanced portable data collectors and other tools in accordance to established standards and as per business-critical equipment.
- Carries out extensive analysis, diagnoses and provide a prognosis on conditions and failures affecting cost and efficient performance of the business-critical equipment, by using the CBM and PdM precision data collected in according to established standards and as per business-critical equipment requirements
- Assist in developing formal technical reports and updating the equipment replacement strategy, by providing precision measurements, analysis, diagnosis and prognosis of failure mechanisms and conditions on components of business-critical equipment
- Participates in reliability improvement programs and roots cause failure analysis process of equipment as per requirement
- Performs workshop & field balancing, shaft laser alignment of rotating machines and laser straightness and flatness measurements
- Maintain data in PMMS-Preventive Management system, CMMS-Computerised Maintenance Management System and various CBM and Precision Maintenance Technique Databases.
- Ultimate responsible for safe working practices especially at the area of responsibility
- Ensure environmental procedures are complied with, and identify and manage environmental aspects that impact your area
- Any other duties as may be assigned

Education

- FTC/Diploma in Mechanical/Electrical Engineering or Bachelor of Science in Mechanical/Electrical Engineering
- Registered with Engineers Registration Board of Tanzania.
- Certified vibration analyst, CAT II or above.

Knowledge and Specific Experience

- Minimum 3 years' maintenance experience in cement or equivalent industry.
- Knowledge of high-speed complex rotating equipment and their maintenance techniques, repairs, diagnostics and fault analysis, practical knowledge in computers especially MS Suite; failure mechanism & risk analysis; practical knowledge of CMMS systems like SAP; fluent in English; analytical; abstract thinking & perseverance.

Salary and Benefits

The Company offers attractive salary and benefits in line with the candidate's qualifications, skills and experience

How to Apply

Send your CV and copies of relevant certificates by email to vacancies@simbacement.co.tz , on or before Wednesday 24th August 2022. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

Tanga Cement Plc is proud to be an equal opportunity employer and we value diversity.

Position: Maintenance Planner

Reporting to: Head of Planning

Location: Tanga

Key responsibility

- To perform activities for the Work Management functions as well as the successful provision of the required systems; various methodologies; tools, techniques and practices required to successfully provide outputs from the Work Management function.

Principal Accountabilities

- Performs the activities of maintaining the asset master data in the CMMS-Computerised Maintenance Management System.
- Ensure the availability of the required skill to maintain the Master Data.
- Ensure Master Data is audited at least annually according to established standards and as per business-critical equipment requirements
- Performs activities that ensure correct implementation and maintenance of Notification and Work Order Process, and ensure availability of required skill to maintain them
- Performs activities that ensure the correct implementation and maintenance of the Task Assessment, Planning and Scheduling Process, and ensure availability of required skill to maintain the same.
- Use electrical and mechanical standards during the planning phase.
- Performs activities that ensure correct implementation and maintenance of Shut-down Planning and Control Process, and ensure the availability of the required skill to maintain them
- Ultimate responsible for safe working practices especially at the areas of responsibility
- Ensure environmental procedures are complied with, and identify and manage environmental aspects that impact your area
- Any other duties as may be assigned

Education

- FTC/Diploma in Mechanical/Electrical Engineering or Bachelor of Science in Mechanical/Electrical Engineering
- Must have extensive experience in maintenance planning implementations and strategies.

Knowledge and Specific Experience

- Minimum 3 years' maintenance experience in cement or equivalent industry.
- In-depth knowledge of Enterprise Asset Management strategy; management of CMMS transactional and master data; task assessment; planning and scheduling process; technical reporting; practical knowledge of CMMS systems like SAP; practical knowledge of computer literacy especially MS Suite; fluent in English; analytical; abstract thinking and perseverance.

Salary and Benefits

The Company offers attractive salary and benefits in line with the candidate's qualifications, skills and experience

How to Apply

Send your CV and copies of relevant certificates by email to vacancies@simbacement.co.tz , on or before Wednesday 24th August 2022.

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

Tanga Cement Plc is proud to be an equal opportunity employer and we value diversity.