

Role background

The Vodafone Foundation funds and manages projects using mobile communication technologies to address some of the world’s most pressing humanitarian challenges and to enhance people’s quality of life under its Connecting for Good programme. The Foundation achieves this objective by using its privileged access to Vodafone networks, technology, customers and employees to empower people with the necessary tools to make a difference in the world. The Foundation is expanding an emergency transport system (m-mama) for pregnant and postpartum women and new-borns - aiming to significantly reduce maternal and new-born deaths with the Government of Tanzania. With a small, dynamic, enthusiastic team, this role will work closely with the Country Director to oversee and move the program ahead. We are looking for an independent, forward thinker to join us. A person that shares our passion, our pioneering spirit and hunger for innovation within the development space. This is a unique opportunity to assist with overseeing and managing a large development programme and innovative partnership with Government.
